

Re-certification Test

1. You gave all the animals in a pen a drug in their feed. The drug has a withdrawal time of 5 days. How many days would be best to wait sell or harvest the animals?
 - A.. 6 days
 - B. 3 days
 - C. 5 days
 - D. none of the above

2. If a medication states: “Caution – Federal law restricts this drug to use by or on the order of a licensed veterinarian.” It is.....?
 - A.. An over the counter medication
 - B. A prescription medication
 - C. An extra label medication
 - D. An off- label medication

3. What kinds of health products require records?
 - A.. vaccinations
 - B. feed additives
 - C. medication treatments
 - D. All of the above

4. Which of the following identification methods are acceptable to identify animals?
 - A.. Ear tags
 - B. Tattoos
 - C. Paint brands
 - D. All of the above

5. Which of the following is an example of illegal use of a medication?

- A. Your vet says to give an off label amount.
- B. You use a drug for a disease that is not listed on the label.
- C. Your veterinarian suggests a drug approved for cattle on your pig.
- D. The label says treat your lamb 2 times a day and you treat the lamb at 7am and 7pm

6. What do you call the drug left in an animal?

- A.. Leftover
- B. Residue
- C. Withdrawal
- D. Tolerance level

7. How long should medicine records be kept for your animals?

- A.. 6 weeks
- B. 6 months
- C. 12 weeks
- D. 12 months

8. As a person raising livestock, you are responsible for the actions of your family when they help care for your animals.

- False
- True

9. Which of the following is the best way to take care of used needles?

- A.. Throw them in the garbage
- B. Burn them
- C. Put them in a separate container and take them to you veterinarian.
- D. Bury them

10. A good herd health plan will help reduce the need for medicine.

- True
- False

11. Which of the following needles has the smallest diameter?

- A.. 14 gauge
- B. 18 gauge
- C. 16 gauge
- D. 10 gauge

12. Which of the following is true:

- A. Livestock are generally “herd” animals and often become nervous when removed from the herd.
- B. Animals will spook at shadows, so proper lighting should be used in working areas.
- C. Livestock housing should be well ventilated.
- D. All of the above

13. Which of the following does not need to be in an animal medicine record?

- A. Animal ID
- B. Date given
- C. Withdrawal time
- D. All of the above must be recorded.

14. Writing down feeding directions and plans for your animal's care is good when someone else does your chores.

- True
- False

15. Why should health products be used?

- A. Cover up poor management
- B. Assist good management
- C. To make your animal sick
- D. To allow you to not care for your animal

16. Which of the following feeds cannot be fed to sheep, cattle, or goats because of where the protein comes from?

- A. Soybean meal
- B. Cottonseed meal
- C. Animal products
- D. Grain mixtures

17. Which of the following are good things to do to protect your animals from diseases?

- A. Limit visitors
- B. Have visitors wear protective footwear
- C. Store feed in a manner that protects it from birds, rodents, and moisture.
- D. Regularly clean water tanks
- E. All of the above

18. If you are unsure of when you could send an animal that has been treated with medicine to harvest, you should:

- A. Send the animal anyway
- B. Test the animal for chemicals
- C. Run the animal through the nearest sale barn

19. Intramuscular injections (IM) should always be given in the hind quarter of the animal.

- True
- False